Remarks on Pilot IRO Activities

- The colleges have decided on implementing other pilot activities:
 - More ambitious
 - More complex (in some cases closer to projects or programs than to pilot activities)
 - Not always SMART
 - More risky
 - Less suitable for sharing experiences

Remarks on Pilot IRO Activities

- Concept of SMART project was difficult
 - Problematic (ambiguous) self-evaluation of capabilities and resources
 - Misunderstanding of risk concept and ways to handle it
 - Too much “wishful thinking” instead of project design approach

Tasks to be done

- Completing the Implementation Phase
- Checking point: Supervising visits in December
- Expected outcomes:
 - Declarations of Pilot Activities
 - Descriptions of the Implementation (not necessarily 100% is expected in terms of the process, influence on the College.)
 - Progress Statement (the template will be prepared and sent next month)

Acknowledgments

- Many thanks for our colleagues helping us in fulfilling tasks of WP5
 - Dr. Vered Holzmann, Israel
 - Dr. Fiona J. H. Hunter, Italy
 - Dr. Gudrun Paulsdottir, Sweden
 - Mag. Dr. Pia-Maria Rabensteiner, Austria

Instead of Conclusions

- I hear and I forget, I see and I remember. I do and I understand (Chinese proverb).

Thank you !
